

Mr. Kelly's Seattle Life

Let's go to Starbucks!

1. Sorry. I would like to go to Starbucks, but I am a stranger around here. Could you tell me how to get there?

2. Sure. Go straight down this street. And, turn right at the next corner.

3. You can see the Starbucks sign. It is next to the Apple Store.

4. OK! Thank you! Dude, you're welcome.

5. May I help you? Hi, can I please have a tall mocha frappuccino and a blueberry scone?

You can see the Starbucks sign. It is next to the Apple Store.

OK! Thank you! Dude, you're welcome.

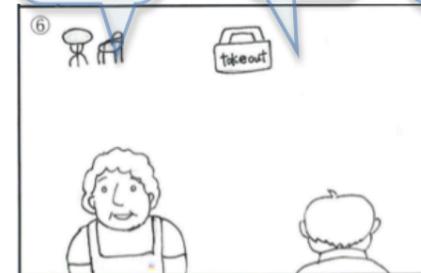

May I help you? Hi, can I please have a tall mocha frappuccino and a blueberry scone?

6. Is it for here or to go? For here.

7. That will be $8.20 please. Here you go. Have a good day; please wait at the end of the counter.

8. Tall mocha frappuccino? That's mine. Thanks!

Seattle

Special Issue for BLSP Beginners

University of Washington

From downtown Seattle, go north about 10 minutes by car, or about 20 minutes by bus. You will come to the wonderful University of Washington. The surrounding area is a college town referred to as "University District." At NE 45th Street in the area, there are a lot of bookstores, old clothes shop, cinemas, restaurants and grocery stores, making the area lively all day.

In addition, some extremely popular cafes such as Shinka Tea and Cafe Allegro are located one block east of "The Ave" on University Way. Be sure to try their great lattes and teas.

William H. Gates Hall

Do you know who this building in the University of Washington was named after? William H Gates senior is father of Bill Gates, the co-founder of Microsoft. In this building, you can use a free wireless Internet connection and other useful equipment. They have also Marian Gould Gallagher Law Library, which has the largest public legal collection in the Pacific Northwest. This building is located in the heart of the university district and is a good place to study. Of course, you can use toll-free Internet even if you are not UW student. If you have a chance, please visit William H. Gates Hall. It is a comfortable place.

photo by Lukobe

Seattle's Tourist Spots

There are many famous companies in Seattle! Can you name any? For example, did you know Microsoft Corporation, Starbucks, and Costco come from Seattle? We will see some of these companies. We are going to Microsoft Corporation to present our research results, and we are going to the Starbucks to learn about its management strategy. This is an experience that only BLSP students can have.

Furthermore, because it is a college town, there are a lot of fast food shops, but also, fabulous local restaurants serving ethnic Japanese, Indian, Greek, Thai dishes.

In addition, Seattle has special products. They are salmon, scallops, Halibut etc., and they are very fresh. So, there are some good sushi shops in Seattle too. We heard that one sushi shop was made by Ichiro Suzuki, the famous major leaguer. If you go eat sushi in Seattle, you might run into him by accident. He might be eating sushi there too!

map from Google Maps

