Welcome
All KU
Students!!

What is the "Mi-Room"

This is a global communication space where you can actually experience different cultures and international exchanges that you cannot get in everyday life. As well as improving your language skills, you can also cultivate an international outlook.

What is a "GTA?"

GTA stands for Global Teaching Assistant.
GTAs are student staff who assist with activities in the Mi-Room

Duties

- (i) Teaching language courses and sessions on topics from around the world
- (ii) Planning and organizing events for international exchange and cultural experiences, etc.

Who we are look for ! !

- 1 Should be motivated to learn as well as teach, be autonomous and disciplined, and have excellent time management skills.
- 2 Should have outstanding interpersonal skills and confidence to instruct sessions in the Mi-Room
- 3 Should be interested in sharing their own cultures and traditions, while being open minded and welcoming of others' cultures and traditions.
- 4 Although teaching experience is not required, it is desirable

※For other requirements, please see the application guidelines.

Early applications encouraged!
