6. Top Impact Factor Journals

7. English Online Journal

The image is a screenshot of the SpringerLink website. The top navigation bar includes the SpringerLink logo, a search bar, and user account options. The main content area displays the journal 'The Review of Socionetwork Strategies', Volume 1 / 2007 - Volume 6 / 2012. A sidebar on the left allows users to browse by volume and issue, listing issues from 2009 to 2012. The main article list shows three articles, with the first being 'Social Network Rebuilder: A Tool to Estimate a Social Network of Financial Crisis Propagation' by Kabei Ichikawa, Toshiko Takemura, Masatoshi Murakami, Kazunori Minetani, and Taiyo Maeda. The article is available for download as a PDF (651.1 KB) and includes a 'Show Summary' link.
